The following Addreſs of the General Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the General Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland, embrace with Eagerneſs this firſt Opportunity, at our Annual Meeting, of congratulating your Majeſty on your happy Nuptials with a Princeſs highly diſtinguiſhed by the moſt eminent Virtues; an Event, which proves your Majeſty's Attention to the Happineſs of your People, and from which we have the joyful Proſpect of a Race of Kings deſcended from your Majeſty, to perpetuate thoſe Bleſſings we at preſent enjoy.

At the ſame Time we beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the remarkable Succeſs which, on ſo many Occaſions, has attended your Majeſty's Arms, the Reſult of that Conduct and Vigour, which, under the Protection of God, muſt ever decide the Fate of Kingdoms: And, at the ſame Time, we behold, with Veneration, thoſe equitable Diſpoſitions, which your Majeſty has conſtantly diſcovered, of reſtoring Peace to Europe, and putting an End to the Devaſtation of War.

That your Majeſty may long enjoy the Throne of your Anceſtors; that you may be long preſerved as a Bleſſing to theſe Kingdoms; and that your Poſterity may reign over a grateful and happy People, to the lateſt Ages, are the earneſt Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, faithful, and loyal Subjects,

The Repreſentatives of the Royal Burrows of Scotland, in a General Convention aſſembled.

Signed in our Name, Preſence, and by Appointment of the General Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland,

By Geo. Lind, Præſes.

Breſlaw, July 11. General Ziethen, on the 7th in the Morning, perceiving Marſhal Daun had in the Night quitted the ſtrong Camp of Kuntzendorff immediately took Poſſeſſion of the ſame. The Marſhal has made a Movement with his Left Wing towards the Konisberg, but his Right is ſtill poſted near Schweidnitz; ſo that his Communication with that Fortreſs is open; and, by his preſent Poſition, he covers the County of Glatz, where his principal Magazines are. The King of Pruſſia is encamped between Gottesberg and Seiferſdorff, having the Village of Ditmanſdorff between him and the Enemy. His Head Quarter is at Seitendorff. Lieutenant General Neuweidt, whom his Pruſſian Majeſty had detached towards Friedland, fell in, on his March, with the Rear of General Brentano's Corps, which he attacked, and made about Four Hundred Priſoners. We hear that General Neuweidt has purſued his March towards Braunau in Bohemia. A Body of Light Troops, compoſed of Coſſacks, Huſſars, &c. have penetrated into that Kingdom on the Side of Trautenau. Lieutenant General Neuweidt, on the 5th or 6th Inſtant, made an Attack on the Auſtrian Poſt of Engelsberg, from which he was repulſed, with the Loſs of upwards of Five Hundred Men. The Cannonade laſted from Three o'Clock till paſt Eight in the Morning. His Pruſſian Majeſty was preſent, and much expoſed during the whole Attack.

Hamburgh, July 16. The King of Denmark ſet out the Day before Yeſterday from Travendahl, on his Return to Copenhagen.

The Daniſh Troops, who are entered into the Dutchy of Mecklenburgh, are ſaid to occupy Scheverin and Domitz.

We

We received Yeſterday the News from Berlin, that the King of Pruſſia had, by his Motions, without Effuſion of Blood, obliged Marſhal Daun to abandon his ſtrong Camp of Kuntzendorff.

Brunſwick, July 20. The Enemy evacuated Gottingen the 15th in the Evening, after blowing up, as it is reported, one of the Baſtions; but the next Morning they returned again, and are now encamped cloſe to the Town. The Deſertion from their Army is very great.

Hague, July 23. By Letters received this Day from the Army under the Command of Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, dated the 20th, we are informed, That his Serene Highneſs marched on the 15th from Wilhelmſtahl to Hoff; and that, on the ſame Day, all the Enemy's Poſts along the Fulda were attacked as far as Melſungen. The French, uncertain what might be the Intention of the Combined Army, ſtruck their Tents, and Lieutenant-General Chevert was recalled from his Poſt at Dranſfeld, to join the main Body of their Army. The French Marſhals have ſince abandoned their Camp of Landwehrhagen, and have marched to Melſulgen, and that Neighbourhood; ſo that, except the Garriſon of Gottingen, they have nothing upon the Right of the Werra, or in the Electorate of Hanover. The Garriſon of Gottingen likewiſe took the Alarm on the 15th, and abandoned the Town in the Afternoon, but returned the 16th in the Morning. Six Thouſand of the French were encamped at Lutterberg; and another Body, of the ſame Force, remained in the intrenched Camp before Caſſel.

The Prince of Condé has ſuddenly quitted Coesfeld, croſſed the Lippe at Halteren, and ſeems to be marching towards Heſſe. The Hereditary Prince, who had obliged the French Detachments to retire from about Oſnabruck, being informed of the Prince of Condé's March, quitted his Camp at Wollbeck on the 18th, and marched to Amecke; and we hear that his Serene Highneſs was to march, on the 21ſt, to croſs the Lippe at Ham, in order to follow and obſerve the Motions of the French, who have left nothing in the Biſhoprick of Munſter, except the Light Troops of Cambfort.

The Letters of the 5th from Madrid give no particular Accounts from Portugal. It is ſaid, that Count d'Aranda will command the Spaniſh Army, in the room of the Marquis de Saria; and that the Troops are to keep the Field, inſtead of going into Quarters of Refreſhment, as is uſual in thoſe Climates. The Works of Miranda and Braganza have been demoliſhed; but thoſe of Chaves are preſerved, in order, as is ſaid, to make a Place of Arms of that Town, for the Sake of facilitating the Siege of Valentia, which was to be undertaken by Don Sebaſtian de la Croix, Commandant in Galicia, as ſoon as the French Succours ſhould arrive; the laſt Diviſion of which was to be at Valladolid on the 13th Inſtant.

Account of the good Effects of Dr. James's Powders, in an Extract of a Letter from the Rev. Mr. George Burton, of Elden, near Thetford, in Norfolk.

SIR,

I Can safely assert, that Dr. JAMES's Powders have several Times been the happy Means of saving both my Family and myself (under the Blessing of Providence) from the destructive Ravages of a Fever, and therefore in Justice I send you this Testimony of my Regard for it.

I have already administered above thirty Dozen of those Powders, and they have never failed in any one Instance. They have done many surprizing Cures; and I cannot omit the following Instance of the safety, as well as the Excellency of them. A Man was seized with a Fever in my Parish (the apparent Wretchedness of whose Circumstances equalled the Misery of his Disorder, for he was surrounded by a Wife and seven Children, who entirely depended on his Labour for Support, and who, in a fit of Despair, had just performed, as they supposed, the last friendly Act, by laying him on his Side in order to die easy:) In this Situation, I gave him seven Grains of Dr. James's Powder, which, by a few Repetitions of that Quantity, in some Days perfectly restored him to Health. He is now alive and as hearty as ever. Many Instances I have met with wherein the Powders have operated much, but removed the Cause; many again in which they have been attended with no sensible Operation, yet perfected the Cure.

As I have, from an experimental Knowledge of the Powders, the Success of them at Heart, as a Friend to Mankind in general, and to my Country in particular, I send you this, to be made use of as you think proper.

I am, Sir,
Your sincere Friend and humble Servant,
George Burton.

After what this Gentleman has said, it may not be amiss to inform our Readers that Dr. James's Powders are sold only by Mr. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by those whom he has appointed to sell them, under his Hand and Seal, in Great Britain, Ireland, and the Colonies Abroad.
